

Welcome to Chickasha, Oklahoma. We are located approximately thirty minutes south of the Oklahoma City metro area. Easily accessible by travel on U.S. Highways 81 and 62 or on four-lane Interstate 44, we are the gateway to Southwest Oklahoma.

While Chickasha is a small community, approximately 15,000 people living in the City Limits, most of your needs can be met without leaving town. Chickasha is home to purveyors of healthcare, pharmacies, groceries, furniture, hardware, appliances, electronics, jewelry, clothing, sporting goods, computer repair and supply, lumber and building supplies, gifts and home accessories, automobile sales and repair and many more. We are home to the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma.

You can not only live in Chickasha, you can work here as well. Chickasha is home to many industries employing hundreds of residents and non-residents. Our local industries are served by and take advantage of the Chickasha Municipal Airport. Available at the airport you will find airplane maintenance, sales, and flight training in addition to the sale of gasoline and jet fuel. Our runways are in great shape, with the primary runway measuring 5,100 feet in length.

In the last ten years Chickasha has seen the construction or reconstruction of many major improvements, including the sports complex, bridges, streets, playgrounds and city facilities. Chickasha has been and will continue to be progressive minded while keeping the tax rate, in check.

As always, we see lots of visitors during the year with the Festival of Light, Arts Festival, sporting events and other entertainment opportunities.

Please visit Chickasha and if looking, consider us for your home or business. If you have questions about Chickasha and what it can offer to you please feel free to contact us at any time.
